

REYKJAVÍK 2013

PLANNORD

Scandinavian experiences of planning for sustainability

6th Nordic Planning Research Symposium (PLANNORD)
on "Scandinavian experiences of planning for sustainability"
18 - 21 August

<http://www.yourhost.is/nord-plan-2013/home.html>

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Sunday 18. August

17:30 - 19:00 Reception

Monday 19. August

08:00 - 09:00	REGISTRATION	Harpa
08:30 - 09:00	Opening	Kaldalón
09:00 - 09:45	KEYNOTE 1	Kaldalón
09:45 - 10:00	COFFEE	Harpa
10:00 - 12:00	PLENARY A	Kaldalón
12:00 - 13:00	LUNCH
13:00 - 15:00	Parallel sessions	Ríma A and B
15:00 - 15:20	COFFEE	Harpa
15:20 - 17:00	Parallel sessions	Ríma A and B

Tuesday 20. August

09:00 - 10:20	Parallel sessions	Ríma A and B
10:20 - 10:40	COFFEE	Harpa
10:40 - 12:00	Parallel sessions	Ríma A and B
12:00 - 13:00	LUNCH
13:00 - 14:00	KEYNOTE 2	Kaldalón
14:00 - 14:30	COFFEE	Harpa
14:30 - 15:30	PLENARY B	Kaldalón
17:00 -	BLUE LAGOON & DINNER

Wednesday 21. August

09:00 - 11:00	Parallel sessions	Ríma A and B
09:30 - 11:00	PLANNORD Meeting	Stemma 3
11:00 - 11:30	COFFEE	Harpa
11:30 - 12:00	CLOSING & WELCOME TO PLANNORD 2015	Ríma A and B
12:00 -	City walk in Reykjavík followed by lunch by own choice

KEYNOTE LECTURES, PLENARY PROGRAM &
SESSIONS

KEYNOTE 1

Monday August 19 (9:00) Kaldalón

Tore Sager

Enduring the neo-liberal roller coaster: resilience or sustainability as planning theory's response?

Plenary A

Monday August 19 (10:00) Kaldalón

Kristina L Nilsson

The Discourse of Efficiency in Urban Planning in the Nordic Countries

Raine Mäntysalo

Strategic moves in the plateau of neoliberal and deliberative planning legitimacy: Three Nordic cases

Eva Falleth

The planning system and practice in Norway. From hierarchical autocracy towards fragmented battlefields?

Carsten Jahn Hansen

A Planning Culture of Trust – a new perspective for spatial planning?

Sigríður Kristjánsdóttir

Icelandic Planning and its attention to sustainability. Lessons from turbulent times.

KEYNOTE 2

Tuesday August 20 (13:00) Kaldalón

Hugh Barton

A health map for human settlements.
Planning as if people really mattered!

Plenary B

Tuesday August 20 (14:30) Kaldalón

Björn Axelsson

New Sustainable Neighbourhood Plan for the City of Reykjavik

Hildur Gunnlaugsdóttir

Public Participation Strategy for New Neighbourhood Plans in Reykjavík

Session 1A: Spatial planning policy and institutional changes within and across scales in the Nordic countries

Chair: Daniel Galland Mon. August 19 13:00 - 15:00 Room: Rima A	Meri Malmari	How to define regional in retail planning?
	Sari Puustinen	Land use planning resources in Finland. Evaluating the applicability of the Land Use and Building act
	Matti Fritsch	Land-use planning for visiting Russians? -the case of Southeastern Finland
	Susa Eräranta	Situation Awareness in Urban Planning
	Jonne Hytönen	The strategic vacuum of public planning
	Magnus Rönn	Restricted developer competitions – three case studies in Sweden

Session 1B: Planning for sustainable rural communities and landscapes

Chair: Knut Bjørn Stokke Mon. August 19 13:00 - 15:00 Room: Rima B	Karitta Laitinen	A new model to govern land use and communal services at rural areas in Finland
	Knut Bjørn Stokke	Coordination challenges for integrated planning and management inside and outside a coastal national park in Norway
	Eirin Hongslo	Decentralization of Conservation Management in Norway and Sweden
	Aase Kristine Aasen Lundberg	Regional plans as policy tools – road maps or prescriptions?
	Lillin Cathrine Knudtzon	Trail or path? The battle of shoreline areas in a discourse perspective

Session 2A: Sustainable environments - planning for environmentally friendly urban development

Chair: Eva I. Falleth Mon. August 19 15:20 - 17:00 Room: Rima A	Katri-Liisa Pulkkinen	Ecosystem services approach as a possibility in urban planning
	Petter Næss	Knowledge-based planning? Consistency and gap between academic knowledge and knowledge claims in planning documents in three Scandinavian city regions
	Simo Haanpää	Methods for incorporating the Green Factor principle in urban planning in Finland
	Harpa Stefansdóttir	The importance of aesthetically pleasing route environment to stimulate commuting bicycling
	Marc J. Jørgensen	Nordhavn - the sustainable city district of the future

Session 2B: Best practices in planning towards sustainability - cases from the Nordic countries

Chairs: Sverrir Ö. Sverrisson & Kristina L. Nilsson Mon. August 19 15:20 - 17:00 Room: Rima B	Dag Kittang	How does the carbon-neutral settlement of Brøset contribute to a new paradigm in planning the urban fabric?
	Enza Lissandrello	Which reflexivity is in need by contemporary urban planning?
	Kai Fogelholm	Maintaining a sustainable and habitable urban structure in Espoo
	Tuomo Saarinen	The development of traffic safety in Espoo – long-term work pays off
	Maria Håkansson	The Swedish Discourse on Sustainable Regional Development: Consolidating the Post-political Condition

Session 3A: Spatial planning cultures

Chair: Carsten Jahn Hansen Tue. August 20 9:00 - 10:20 Room: Rima A	Gunilla Lindholm	Planning Regional without Regional Planning
	Jesper Person	The international community is knocking on the door: Environmental compensation in Swedish transport sector
	Lars A Engberg	Crisis or innovation in Danish urban renewal? Rethinking sustainable urban renewal in Copenhagen
	Ulla Higdern	Co-Creation of regional future - action research in regional foresight

Session 3B: From urban planning and design competitions to reality

Chairs: Raine Mäntyselä & Leif Östman Tue. August 20 9:00 - 10:20 Room: Rima B	Karitta Laitinen	Dreams and reality - How the winner solutions of planning and design competitions have come true in Finland
	Zheng Liang	Rethinking international design competition as trading zone-a study on two cases of contemporary international design and planning competitions
	Audun Engh Sigríður Kristjánsd.	Involving the local community in planning: Urban design charettes in Norway From an idea to reality, the case study of Úlfarsfell.

Session 4A: Planning in the times of an economic roller coaster
Chair: Egill Þórarinnsson Tue. August 20 10:40 - 12:00 Room: Ríma A	Lúðvík Eliasson Arna Sigríður Mathiesen	How housing booms are halted Scarcity and creativity in the context of a financial meltdown in the Reykjavik capital area
Session 4B: Social dimension of sustainability / new urban forms / Housing
Chairs: Jón Rúnar Sveinsson & Sigríður Kristjánsdóttir Tue. August 20 10:40 - 12:00 Room: Ríma B	Johanna Lilius Marketta Kyttä Helena Leino Hanna Mattila	Sustainability through Living Small: New Ways to View Density in Planning Urban Happiness – Context-Sensitive Study of the Social Sustainability of Urban Settings Sustainable design: socio-technical continuity shaping hybrid urban planning Discourses of efficiency and sustainability in Finnish land-use planning
Session 5A: Sustainable planning in the high North
Chair: Trausti Valsson Wed. August 21 9:00 - 11:00 Room: Ríma A	Gunnar Stefansson K. Eliasson, T. Valss., G.f. Ulfarsson and S. M. Gardarsson Torill Nyseth	Changes in Global Shipping as the Arctic Opens Historic Overview and a Mapping System To Help Introduce Sustainable Planning in the Arctic Responsible planning in the Arctic?
Session 5B: Young research forum
Chair: Bjarki Jóhannesson Wed. August 21 9:00 - 11:00 Room: Ríma B	Eyrún Pétursdóttir, Gunnar Ágústsson, Kristján Sigurgeirsson, Íris Stefánsdóttir & Sindri Birgisson Arnþór Tryggvason Drifa Gústafsdóttir & Sólveig H. Jóhannsd. Egill Þórarinnsson Ester A Ármannsd. Eva Dís Þórðardóttir Eva Prastardóttir Gísli R. Guðmundss. Hlynur Torfi Torfason Sindri Birgisson Sæunn Kolbrún Þórólfsdóttir	Grjótaþorpið - Restoring life to forgotten places Food for Growth - The Possibilities of Urban Agriculture on Reykjavik's apartment buildings lawns Ecological planning: a case study of Vatnsmýrin, the bird conservation area in Reykjavik Housing policy and the construction of small dwellings in the greater Reykjavik area during the economic boom years of 2003-2008 Do regional strategies contribute to diverting municipal waste from landfills and increase recycling? National Planning Policy for Iceland- process and formulation A pedestrian area in Reykjavik's city centre Bicycle routes in Iceland Mixed use development, policy and reality: Three Icelandic cases The beach and the forest Analysis of the Hellisheiðar Geothermal power plant surroundings and a planning proposal for the final design of the area.
Session 6: Closing and welcome to PLANNORD 2015
11:30 - 12:00 Room: Ríma A & B
12:00 -		City Walk in Reykjavik followed by lunch by own choice

